E CHANCES OF ITS PASSAGE

To gorgeous event passed into history than there was one about the distribution of the spoils. There began to appear bills for expenses of which nothing before had been heard. These bills it is said, were generally presented by A. Gorden Murray, who brooked no question of his proceedings. Matters reached a climax last evening when at a meeting of the inner council of the association held Saturday, March 5, Mr. McMillan openly charged the chief with baving attempted to commit fraud. The result is a formidable-looking document which Mr. McMillan later found on his desk reading as follows:
